

Privacy Policy

MCC believes strongly in protecting the privacy of the personally identifiable information you share with us. We also believe it is important to inform you about how we will use your personal data, and to give you choices about how those data will be used. By using MCC's website and online store, you are consenting to MCC's collection, use, or storage of your personally identifiable information unless you opt out of such collection, use, or storage in accordance with the opt out process described in this Privacy Policy. Therefore, we encourage you to read this Privacy Policy carefully.

Scope of this Privacy Policy

In general, this Privacy Policy applies to all personal information of individuals collected or used by Micro Computer Control Corporation (MCC), or its representatives and distributors. This includes information from online and offline collections of personal data.

Why should you share your personal data with MCC?

Sharing your personally identifiable information enables us to offer you a number of benefits. It will make it easier and more convenient for you to:

- * Request MCC product information and documentation
- * Request MCC sales and support communications
- * Save time by storing your preferences
- * Buy MCC products online

It will also allow us to conduct market research to help us develop better products, to provide more responsive customer service, and to improve our websites.

You may choose to share your information with us in a number of ways, such as viewing a web page, or ordering a product.

You may also share your personally identifiable information with us by communicating with one of our sales or support representatives by e-mail, telephone, or in writing.

Sometimes MCC obtains your personal data from other parties outside MCC. This includes disclosure of your personal data by one of our partner companies. If you do not want us to use your personal data which you have not provided to us yourself, you can let us know by contacting us at the address listed below.

Sharing information

We want to know you better so we can serve you better. But the choice of whether you want this kind of service is up to you.

You should know that your personally identifiable information may be transferred from your home country to other MCC partners around the world, who may communicate with you about our products or special offers you may find useful. If you do not want us to send you personalized offers or information, you can let us know at the time on initial contact, or by communicating at the address listed below.

MCC may use outside companies for handling your purchase or request, for processing order and payment data, or shipping your order. MCC requires these companies to adequately safeguard your personal data and not use your data for any other purpose not authorized by MCC.

MCC will release personally identifiable information if compelled by law. MCC will not sell or provide your personal data to other third parties allowing them to use your personal data for their own purposes.

MCC will not share any personal financial information you provide (such as credit card information) with other parties unless this is needed to handle your order, process our invoice, or prevent or combat fraud or export violations.

From time to time, our Web Site may provide links to other websites. You should carefully review the privacy policies on those sites; they may differ from the MCC Privacy Policy.

“Cookies” and website logging

Some of our Web Sites will send a "cookie," a small text file, to your computer. This allows us to recognize your computer the next time you visit, without bothering you with another request to register. And, if you use an online “shopping cart”, cookies allow us to keep track of the products you purchase. If you do not wish to receive cookies, please refer to the “Help” file of your Internet Browser to learn how to either block all cookies or receive a warning before a cookie is stored.

If you visit our Web Sites to browse, read, or download information, we collect and store some “visitor information” from you, such as the name of the domain and host from which you access the Internet, the Internet Protocol (IP) address of the computer you are using, the date and time you access our Web Site, and the Internet address of the website from which you linked directly to our Web Site. We use this information to measure the traffic on our Web Sites and to help us make our Web Sites more useful. We delete this information after some time.

Safeguarding the information you share with us

We recognize our responsibility to protect the information you entrust to us. MCC uses a variety of secure techniques to protect your information, including secure servers, firewalls, and encryption of financial data; however MCC does not guarantee the security of any information transmitted to or from MCC websites.

MCC sales and support staff are available to assist in your selection and use of our products. Please remember that any personally identifiable or company information you provide over the Internet may be visible to others. It is your responsibility to protect this information, and you should exercise caution before deciding to disclose it.

Your rights

Once you have provided us with your personally identifiable information, you will have reasonable access to that information so you can change or delete it. You may do this by accessing your online account profile, or by requesting a copy of your profile at the contact address listed below.

Contacting us

Please contact us if you would like to:
